

UK MOD Centre for Defence Enterprise (CDE)

Andy Nicholson

Dstl Head of Supplier Engagement and Head of Centre for Defence Enterprise

04 July 2014

© Crown

copyright 2013

The aim of CDE

Technology

Best providers

Barriers

Rapid Technological Change

Defence

Other markets

Utilisation

CDE Operating Principles

5

Key

Applied

Consistent

(1) Engaging Innovators

SMEs

Academia

Wider industry

(2) Funded Opportunities

Fair

Equitable

Accessible

(3) Sustained incentive

Guarantee

Support

Feedback

(4) Minimise participation costs

Bidding

Contracting

Investment

(5) Compliance

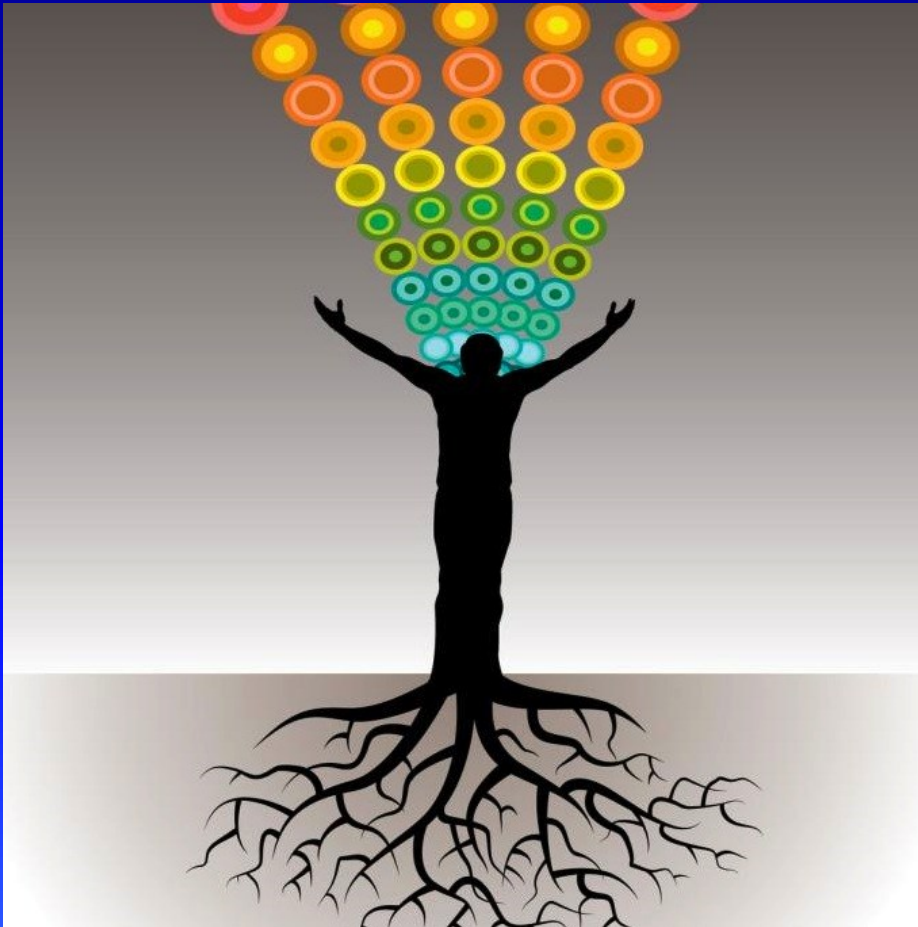

Fair

Transparent

Auditable

Intellectual property

Defcon705

Benevolent

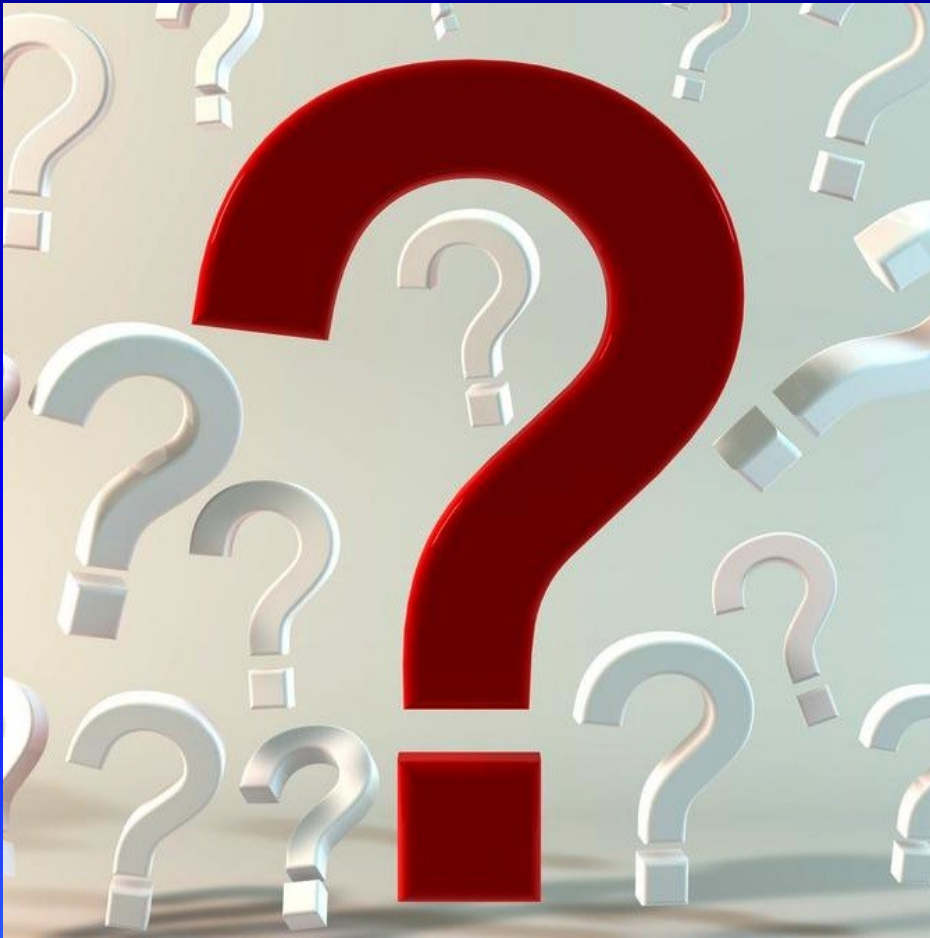

Rights of use

Two routes to funding

Enduring
Themed

Enduring Challenge Competition

Perpetual

Radical

£3M per year

Enduring Challenge Framework

Human performance

Lethality

Protection

Mobility

Lower cost of ownership

Enduring Challenge Framework

Situational awareness

Communication

Data

Power

Themed competition

Requirements

Bounded

Specific

Innovation Network Events

22 July 2014

Featuring

detection of airborne chemical hazards
themed competition

Effective Proposals

The essentials

Online bid submission

CDE Portal

Only route

Low overhead

A successful proposal

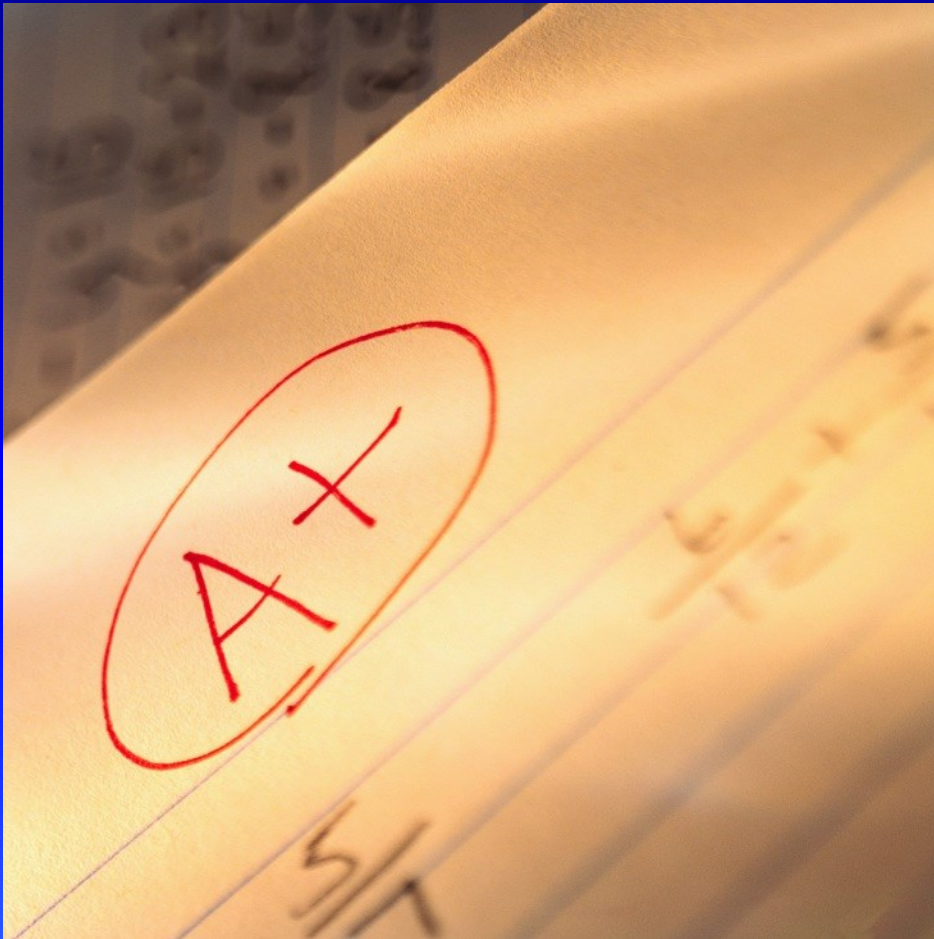

Clear

Concise

Evidence based

Description

First thing

Imagination

Assessors

Unclassified

Mandatory

Including work

No exceptions

Assessment

60

Minutes

Each assessor

Per proposal

As presented

In it to win it

Deadline

Plan

Submit early

QA